

Head of Junior School

Somerville House is a leading independent girls' school with a rich and impressive history. It has experienced substantial enrolment growth in recent times. The School has a reputation for academic excellence and a proud history of developing confident and highly capable individuals of the future. Somerville House students have the opportunity to participate in an extensive academic, sporting and cultural program, while receiving high standards in personal care and individual attention within the School community.

There is currently exceptionally strong interest in the Junior School of over 580 students from Pre-Prep to Year 6 with waiting lists at a number of year levels. With the move of the current Head of Junior School to a school in China, the School seeks to appoint a leader to continue the dynamic and capable leadership of the Junior School and to further build on the strong academic performance and pastoral care programs.

The successful applicant will be an outstanding educational leader with demonstrated experience and proven ability to work collaboratively to:

- Provide exemplary staff leadership and management of the Junior School
- Further enhance a culture of professional excellence and high performance
- Provide an ongoing focus on Teaching and Learning within an environment of high expectation
- Align an educational philosophy with a strategy focussed on developing a creative, caring and nurturing environment
- Build quality relationships with students that support their positive sense of identity, wellbeing and love of learning
- Continue to foster the strong sense of community
- Contribute to the work of the educational leadership team
